IT'S NEVER A SURPRISE to see something unusual at Knott's Berry Farm but a herd of Buffaloes! It's a fact, and above is shown the pictorial proof of the phenomenon. The nicest part about the idea will be buffalo steak on the menu at the Steak House. "Andy" Anderson promises this innovation at regular intervals during the year for those who really want a "taste" of the old west.

Board Plans for Future Development Recreation Park; County Takes Option

The county will take an option in the amount of $10,500 on the present site of the Cypress recreation park following the signing of the necessary legal papers last week. Land for a park on Crescent Ave. was purchased three years ago, and payments have been made each year with funds received by an annual celebration appropriately named "White Gold day."

A park district was voted by the community last September, but little action can be expected before the new tax budget is made up. Money will not be available until next year, since the taxes for this year are already paid. After the sum of $8,100 plus taxes is used to pay off the balance, the local board will have approximately $5,000 to spend on the park.

Jake Van Dyke, president of the Cypress Recreation Park Board, Inc., says that blueprints for plans formulated at a meet-

Local School Boys At Annual Banquet

Of four speeches on the subject of "projects" given at the annual Future Farmers of America banquet at Anaheim Union High school given Thursday evening, three of them were by Cypress students.

The three boys were Kennon Laird, freshman; Robert Van Dyke, sophomore and John Iwashito, senior.

Instructors and student members presented a well rounded program, and names of the winners following the adult judging will be announced later.

NEW BUSINESS TO OPEN NEXT WEEK IN CYPRESS

Arnold Schinerer has announced that he will open "Arnold's Refrigeration company" in the building at 5516 Lincoln avenue, formerly occupied by Billie's dress shop.

Schinerer says this was formerly known as the Albert Davig company in Bellflower, which will be moved to the Cypress location.

TO START WORK ON NEW BUILDING LINCOLN AVENUE

A. E. Arnold announced this week that Kroetz Dairy supplies has signed a lease to occupy a business building which he will construct on Lincoln avenue between Corby's barber shop and the Cypress beverage store.

The small building which houses Rick's watch shop will be moved toward the east to make room for the structure.

Arnold says work will begin on the 24x70 building next week. Helping him will be Bill Davidson and his associate, H. Brattlof, of Anaheim.

Architectural design will conform to the style used in the four-unit store spaces completed last year, which are occupied by Cypress cleaners, Western Auto, the post office and Corby's barber shop and Evie's beauty shop.

DIMES MARCH

Cypress netted $23.75 toward the recent March of Dimes.

Containers were placed in the Cypress hardware store and the M & H market. This does not include the school's contribution.

Salute to Cypress Youth

By Beth Kroesen

Boys and girls in the Cypress area proved publicly last Friday evening that exuberant youthful spirit and physical energy can be directed toward useful purposes when properly channeled.

This proper channel has resulted in a program of body-building which is beneficial to the individual and has proved to the community that boys and girls can work out their own leisure time problems with the facilities that are available, which do not include fancy quarters and expensive equipment.

Under the direction of Al Dean and Keith Giles, local men, and aided by professional weight-lifter and stunt man Orvie Wertzbaugher of Long Beach, the teen-agers have been trained to a degree which we hesitate to believe can be duplicated by similar youth groups in other communities.

Meet Twice Weekly

In a few short lessons, meeting only twice a week at the schoolhouse, skills in weight-lifting, balancing, and the many arts of wrestling and boxing have been perfected. The wrestling matches probably won the greatest approval, their popularity having been strengthened through that great medium, television. Outside of the heavy-weight class, the boys feigned the practices engaged in over the television screen to entertain their audiences in LOCAL RED CROSS DRIVE ALL SET: MRS. PURDY CHM.

A drive for memberships in the American Red Cross will begin locally between now and the first of March. Mrs. T. J. Purdy, 5561 Saint Ann Ave., accepted the chairmanship of this area for Mrs. T. W. Clark of Stanton, who is head of this district.

A good number responded to the call for volunteers. In addition to Mrs. Purdy, there were Mrs. Minnie Adkins, and representatives from the auxiliary to the Cypress VFW. They are Mmes. Dorothy Smith, Louise Begley, Ann Wedeking, Patricia Johnson, Bea Hahn, and Jean Kreissler. Mrs. Ann Lucas, who is a member of another post's auxiliary, will also assist.

Haskell Kelley will take over solicitation in the business area and the women will solicit in the residential district and from the dairies.

The memberships are for a year at one dollar, or a pledge of one dollar a month. The member is given a card and a sticker to place in the window. The sum is deductible from income tax returns.

Volunteers who have not as yet indicated their desire to help may call Mrs. Purdy at Anaheim 60296. Or any who are not contacted may reach her at this number.

BOARD LETS SCHOOL CONTRACT BEGIN ON NEW BUILDING TODAY

Public to Hear MWD Discussion At C of C Meet

Monday evening's meeting of the Cypress Chamber of commerce will be an open meeting. Chairman Allen, of the MWD committee and Engineer Brown, hired by the same committee, will be present.

Supervisor Ralph McFadden, this district, will also be present.

The meeting to discuss water from the Metropolitan Water District will be held in the school auditorium at eight o'clock p.m.

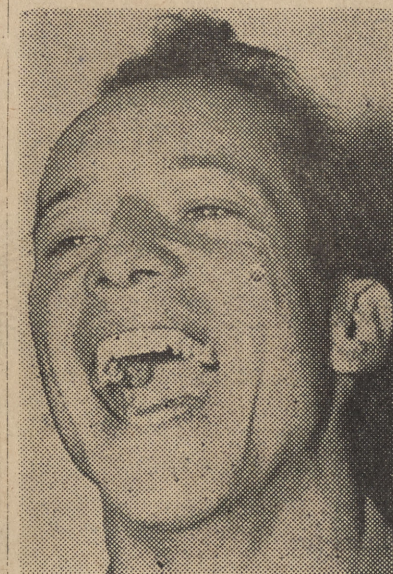

P-T.A. Revue To Be Given Thurs. and Fri.

Next Thursday and Friday evenings, March 2 and 3, the stage setting in the school auditorium will set time back to the gaslight era of the late 1800's when the P-T.A. presents its "Gay 90's Revue."

Under the direction of Mrs. Jack Junker and co-chairman Mrs. Dorothy Gage, aided and abetted by zealous workers from the P-T.A. and community in general, an evening's entertainment is being provided which will include the proverbial "melter-drammer" and many novelty numbers.

The cast is fortunate in having secured the help of two professionals, Lufe Page, 9141 Hanson road, who is helping with the musical routines, and C. A. Thorsen, 5561 Danny avenue, who answered the plea for a tenor. Both men will appear in solo numbers.

Appearing as emcee and narrator will be the always popular "Sandy" Sanders, who was once chosen "laughingest man" in Cypress. He appeared in the P-T.A. sponsored minstrel last year as one of the end-men.

C. J. SANDERS, Jr.

Musical numbers will include many of the favorites from that era, some of which will be presented by a barber shop quartette, and others by a chorus.

Admission is 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Tickets may be purchased from P-T.A. members or at the door. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Work is beginning today on the construction of a new eight-unit classroom building at the Cypress Elementary school. The contractor has stated that the structure will be completed in 180 days. Work bids were opened and read Friday evening, February 17.

There were 10 bids. The main bids ranged from a high of $142,785 to a low of $123,600.

Alternate bids ranged from $1,543 low to $2,155 high. The bids were taken under advisement by members of the board of trustees until the following Monday morning at ten o'clock.

When the board re-convened at that time, the low main bid of Taylor and Kretz, Arlington, was accepted and alternate bids rejected.

The contractor has his bonds ready for the signing of the contract.

H. E. Carley, of Fullerton, will be the school's inspector on construction.

It is expected that next fall, when school is resumed following the summer vacation, a normal schedule may again be in effect in the Cypress elementary school and the need for double sessions and crowded classrooms will be eliminated.

Students in the kindergarten and first three grades are forced to attend morning and afternoon classes this year in order that they may be accommodated.

Fire Flash!

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ogle and their five children at 9321 Walker St. burned to the ground early Thursday afternoon. A short in the wiring in a bedroom ceiling is thought to have been the cause.

Ogle, a milker for Ed Frilliter, was unable to use his phone, which was busy, he reported, even though he informed those on the line it was a case of fire. He ran to the E. V. Corby home, and Mrs. Corby turned in the alarm.

A county fire official was heard to remark that the property is a total loss. The five-room home and its furnishings were covered by insurance. The family's television and a new washer were among the few articles saved. Ogle was buying the property from R. A. Robertson.

The five children are Kenneth 15, James Lee 12, Charles 10, Harold 8, and Joan 5.

Cypress fire volunteers and the West Anaheim department answered the call, but the fire had gained too much headway before the alarm could be sounded.

In the absence of a permanent disaster committee in the process of being formed, the temporary committee recently set up will perform in this emergency. Donations may be brought to the Cypress Church of the Nazarene annex or telephone the Rev. W. D. Howard at Anaheim 60457. The other members are "Dick" Hathcock and "Happy" Kreissler.

I RISE TO REMARK

by John Phillips

When the smooth-talking salesman sticks his foot in the door and starts the salestalk taught him as the best means to convince the housewife of the merits of the new gadget, or the set of books for the children's education, the two basic assumptions are that the item is something she needs and that she can get it from him as cheaply as she can get it from her hometown dealer.

Suppose he said to her that she could buy a better article over town, and that he had to add 25 per cent to the price to cover his services; would she buy? No, she wouldn't. So I am convinced that the only reason for the present apathy on the part of the voters, to the trend towards the socialist and bankrupt state, is the fact that the housewife and her husband have not yet realized that she is being offered an article poorer than the one they can get at home, and that the federal government proposes to add an unbelievably high charge (the rising costs of bureaucracy) to the local costs. I am equally confident that many voters, of the lower income brackets, have not yet realized that the "rich" no longer exist, as taxpayers of importance, and that they themselves will be the ones to pay the bills for these "gifts" from the welfare state.

Wait for Health

If the voters thought that, under the appealing idea of greater health for all, they were about to regiment the practice of medicine to the extent that patients would become case numbers, and their conditions subject to discussion by local committees, with months to wait for anything but emergency attention, would they buy that in exchange for their own local physician? England is now fighting out of her mistake.

Would they buy a farm subsidy program which would give us a potato fiasco for other crops? Would they buy an education program in which federal influence on schoolbooks, teachers, and local schools was wrapped up in the words, "Federal Aid?" I still don't think so.

Who is to pay the costs? Five to 15 billions for federal control of medicine; the same for the Brannan plan, probably more; a billion for federal control of education; and these are only three of the programs. These are yearly costs, IN ADDITION TO PRESENT TAXES.

Higher Taxes

In 1947 there were 195,675 taxpayers who had incomes over $25,000. The amount of their income over $25,000 totalled $4.6 billion. On this they already pay $2.6 billion tax. All they have left to live on is $2.0 billion, or an AVERAGE, roughly, of about $10,000 a year. TAKE IT ALL and you only have $2.0 billion to apply on this socialization program which will certainly cost $15.0 billion a year, and could cost $35.0 billion a year. It would be necessary to dig deeper.

How deep? Drop down to incomes of $7,000 a year. There were 1,819,008 of them. CONFISCATE every cent over present taxes. You'd only get an additional $9.4 billion. We haven't even raised the minimum, let alone the probable maximum.

Don't you see my point, seriously? We couldn't confiscate ALL income, even in Mr. Truman's socialistic state. We couldn't get much more from the people already heavily taxed. The only people to pay the taxes for these GIFTS from a paternalistic government are taxpayers down to the lowest income group, to whom they are being offered as bribes for votes. They'll be paid for by YOU and YOU and YOU.

I rise to remark that we'll do well to slam the door before this salesman gets his foot in.

COUNTY COMMENT

By GEORGE E. HART,

Orange County Press Bureau

The road ahead for Orange county's citrus industry, in the light of brand new data, may be making a U-turn. It may be the road back. But most conservative observers doubt that a $50,000,000 industry can be frost-killed or crowded out.

However, the annual crop report of Agricultural Commissioner Dixon W. Tubbs, to be issued within a few days, will show what freeze, quick decline, small sizes, and population growth has done to whittle down the orchard industry of this county within the last several years.

The report will show that in 1949 the county's fruit tree acreage had dropped 12,000 acres below the total reported for the 1948 tree census.

The figures do not actually reflect one year's loss, because, as Commissioner Tubbs explains, the current census represents a correction of data covering a period of several years. For one thing, they've quit counting backyard trees.

But to a public used to watching an expanding fruit industry swell, year by year, it is startling to discover that the tide has turned the other way and the county's great agricultural empire has all at once shrunk by 12,000 acres.

Of the 12,000-acre decrease shown by the impending 1949 report, 9,550 acres represent decrease in citrus groves.

Here, then, is a curious situation—progress and retrogression in the same breath. Population and industrial growth causing agricultural decline. Whether a new economic picture is being drawn for Orange county, and agriculture is really on its way out as a major factor in local living, nobody pretends to know. All that is certain is that just now it is on the retreat.

There is little doubt about one branch of it. The walnut industry of this county is about to join the dodo bird. It is following the apricot industry into oblivion. The 1948 tree census showed 2,330 acres of walnuts left from a once-great industry. Now you can cross out the first two figures. There are only 30 acres of walnuts reported for 1949.

The apricot industry, as a matter of fact, rallied faintly. Not so long ago there were just five acres of commercial apricots left. The 1948 report showed 19 acres. But the 1949 report will show 10 acres bearing and 4.6 acres non-bearing, so apricots are on down grade again.

The only gain made in orchard acreage for 1949 was the increase of 27 acres of olives, from 72 to 99 acres, if that interests anybody.

Avocados held their ground pretty well, decreasing only 21 acres, from 2,328 to 2,307.

Total citrus acreage slipped

Significant Statements by Interesting Californians

GOVERNOR EARL WARREN, Sacto. — "Government is no place for magicians. The need is for common honesty, independence . . . hard work and determination."

from 76,942 to 67,392, the 1949 total having extra significance in the fact that a relatively small portion is non-bearing. So there isn't much new stuff coming on. Valencias fell off from 67,263 acres to 69,923, navals dropped from 1,121 to 730, lemons from 7,952 to 5,485, and grapefruit from 606 to 254.

Other figures: persimmons dropped from 247 to 169, plums from 70 to 12, peaches and nectarines from 72 to 36, pears from 8 to 4, grapes from 73 to 56. The total for all orchard acreage shows a drop from 82,161 to 70,120.

The decrease in acreage may not bring a corresponding decrease in crop income in ordinary years, considering that much of the acreage eliminated was marginal stuff, although frost treated good and marginal groves alike these last two winters.

How much of the orchard shrinkage is due to frost or crop and market reverses and now much to inroads made by subdivisions to accommodate population growth, has not been estimated. In many cases, no doubt, the removal of an orchard resulted from a combination of these factors. The owner subdivided, or sold for subdividing, because of reverses.

One interesting item is that the new Santa Ana freeway right of way already has eliminated about 20 acres of citrus groves in the city of Santa Ana alone.

The 12,000 decrease, Commissioner Tubbs points out does not bring the census completely up to date. It does not include a number of 40-acre and 60-acre tracts now being subdivided.

A study of the data shows that the average size of an orange grove in Orange county is 11½ acres. San Juan Capistrano district groves run to the largest size in the county, 18 acres. In the Irvine area, the average is 17 acres. Northern Orange county's average is 14 acres. Around Orange and El Modena-Villa Park-Olive, the average is 8.6 acres. Districts like Costa Mesa average five-acre groves.

Kiddies' Travel On Their Own Causes Anxiety

While mother had their new little brother over in Fullerton at the doctor's office and daddy was in Artesia on business, the migratory members of the Meils menage meandered into this wide, big beautiful world to see what they could see.

Amy is four years old and "Butch" three. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Meils. Their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Meils, who thought they had everything under control at the families' mill and homes on Lincoln Ave.

When it was discovered that the children had disappeared Friday morning, a search began at once. The immediate neighborhood was scoured, with no results. About that time, the parents returned home.

Just when Mrs. Meils was showing a deputy from the county sheriff's department colored photos of brother and sister, hero Earl Sartwell saved the day. He followed a hunch, and picked the wanderers up—of all places—over in Cypress acres, some distance and about an hour and a half away from home.

Judging from the soaked shoes and pant legs, the migration had been in the mud and mire through the fields and near the railroad tracks.

There's a pretty good guarantee that an "impression" was made and that the travelers will wait for proper chaperonage on their future impulses to see the world.

Enjoy Exhibition By Older Group

About 200 people witnessed a show put on by the Cypress Teenage weightlifters last Friday, Feb. 17 in the school auditorium.

About 90 people attended the meetings on Wednesday and Friday.

A special act by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wertzbaugher was on the program. Orville did an act in which a Chinese acrobat was killed. He is the only man now living who can do this act. Mary Ann Wertzbaugher was recently the lightweight champion.

One of the acts was a pyramid put on by Frank Ferreira, Stanley Spicer, and Al Alponete. The opening exercises were by Merlin Dean, George Caperone, Paul Caperone, and Nolan Blackman. Next was a military press by Joe Lorenzo, who weighs 205 pounds. Deep knee bends were done by Bill Siples, who weighs 206 pounds.

The girls did exercises.

Two-hand snatch was done by Johnny Iwashita, who weighed 135 pounds and lifted 175 pounds. Special lifts were by Walter Boeckeler and Charles Holland. There was wrestling done by Bill Siples and Joe Lorenzo. Heavyweight wrestlers were Norman Duncan and Tom Boudreau. Next came lifts by Kenneth Van Dyke, Robert Van Dyke and Duane Duncan.

There was boxing by Henry Davis and Buddy Hubkey, and wrestling by John Andreas and Manuel Coelho. Then there was a girls' pyramid by the girls. It was a very nice program and was enjoyed by all.

This and That—Here and There

TURF CLUB GIVES TO CHEST

A gift of $3,750 from Hollywood Turf club helps to make possible the continuance in Orange county of several charity agencies. The sum will be prorated among several towns, including Anaheim.

Cypress this year was able to raise over $316 toward the sum credited to Anaheim, said Mrs. T. J. Purdy, general chairman here. This sum did not include the school's contribution. Of this amount, $100 came back almost immediately into the community to aid a family who was "burned out" when fire destroyed its home and belongings.

The gift was made possible through Charity day racing at Hollywood Park.

POUND KEEPS UNCLAIMED DOG

Because she is a dog lover herself, and knew this one was an unusually fine specimen, Mrs. Dwight Jacobs, 5611 Saint Ann Ave., befriended a beautiful red Irish setter two weeks ago.

Since no one claimed him after several unsuccessful attempts to locate his owners, the attendant at the county pound was notified.

Poundmaster Williams says he is still there, is a nice dog, and can easily be had for a $1.50 payment of the pound fee. A farmer or rancher should love this one.

SALE SUCCESSFUL

The Busy Bee club realized a profit of $20.27 following its baked food sale last Saturday in downtown Cypress.

The group meets the first Tuesday evening of each month, and beginning with the next meeting, they will take place at the VFW hall, 5955 Lincoln Ave.

Guests in the Glenn Hubbard home this week at 8121 Miller Rd included Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Pelous and three-year-old daughter, Mary Jean, for dinner and canasta Saturday night and Mrs. Hubbard's mother, Mrs. A. R. Hubbard of Huntington Park and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Hedges, of Fairbury, Nebraska, on Thursday. Hubbard attended the 22nd annual citrus grower's institute in Anaheim last Friday.

Two little Cypress girls attended a surprise valentine's party given in Anaheim for Rita Ring, by her mother, Mrs. Ralph Ring. They were Marietta Holborow, who won first prize in the games contest and "Dolly" Hathcock.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Anaheim for Mrs. Frances Stewart, 95100 Olive St., Bellflower, who died Wednesday. Survivors include Martin V. Stewart and Mrs. Lenore Schwartzbaugh, a son and daughter, both of Cypress.

MOTOR TO MESA, ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Robins and children, Gary and Leslee, drove to Mesa, Arizona, last Sunday. They were interested visitors at the Mormon temple there, later driving to Coolidge, Arizona. Sightseers there visit the state park to examine the Indian ruins which show unusual skills in construction of their dwellings and evidences of outstanding ways of self-protection.

The family returned Tuesday night, and "Bill" was hard at work in the cleaning shop Wednesday morning making up for lost time.

Virgil B. Moss of Phoenix, Arizona, flew to Los Angeles on business last weekend. He also visited his son and family, the James Moss's and became acquainted with his newest grandson, six-week-old Gary Thomas Moss.

GETS NORWALK, NOT JAIL

Superior Judge Raymond H. Thompson last week agreed to suspend jail sentence of 10 months if the defendant, Jesse E. Pickerell, would be voluntarily committed to Norwalk state hospital.

Pickerell issued a bogus check to the Cypress Beverage store. He claimed to be sick mentally and not able to resist the urge to write checks on certain occasions.

CHICKENPOX RANKS FIRST

Cases of mumps in Orange county has relinquished its lead to chickenpox. According to the communicable disease report for the two weeks ending February 11, there were 118 chickenpox and 80 mumps cases reported.

In 1949 there were 181 of chickenpox compared to 202 in 1950; mumps records showed 421 cases in 1949 compared to 192 so far in 1950.

LYNX SOFTBALL ON TELEVISION WITH BALL GAMES

games played by the Lynx and the Lynx Kittens this year at Recreation Park in Buena Park will be televised over KFI-TV, according to Manager "Shorty" Hill.

Tests at the park and under the lights have been made recently and final arrangements were made except for final signing of the contract Friday night. Increased lighting units will be installed at the park to provide 58,000 watts of light, making this field one of the best night diamonds in the state.

League play against Montebello in the new Southern California circuit opens here May 2. Second game is the next evening, May 3, at Amerige Park against the Santa Ana Queens. Fourteen of the Lynx' games will be televised, seven from the local park on Tuesday nights and seven from Amerige on Wednesday nights.

By Gloria McKinzie

A birthday dinner was given in the honor of Peggy Flynn last Saturday night at the home of the honored. Those attending were Russell Noe, Shirlee Boudreau, Duane Duncan, Betty Murphy, and Louie Stephens. Everyone had a grand time.

Is it still B. S. for Sue McLaughlin?

Who is M. S.'s new desire? How did Ralph Mason, Vance Newkirk, and Warner Gedney like their deally chase Saturday night?

Oh! Johnny Wright! Was that wink the other day meant for P.H.?

It's hard for me to keep up with Alberta these days!

I bet some of the Cypress girls were really surprised Friday night at the weight lifting show. It seems half of them didn't know we had such strong boys in Cypress!

PERSONAL SHOWER
AT WILLIAMS HOME
HONORS F. ARNOLD

Thursday night at the family's home on Magnolia, Mrs. Rosser Williams entertained in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Faye Arnold.
The latter will be married some time in the near future to Otilio Rivera, of Reno, Nevada, on a date not yet announced.

The honoree received many lovely gifts of linen and personal lingerie. After the packages were opened, the rest of the evening was spent playing canasta.
Mary Ann Hunt won high score.

The hostess had placed attractive, spring-like arrangements of white stock, violets and yellow daffodils throughout her home.
She served punch during the game period, and ice cream and cake at refreshment time.

Guests included Faye's mother, Mrs. E. L. McWilliams, and her sister, Mrs. M. S. Robins, Mrs. M. H. Damron, Mrs. Len
White, Mrs. A. E. Arnold, Mrs.
Robert Hoyt, all of Cypress, and Mrs. M. G. Hunt and Mary Ann,
Mrs. Ethelyn Johns and Miss Maxine Lucas of Lakewood, Mrs.
Bill Copeland, of Bellflower, and Mrs. Dan Williams, Buena Park.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were another sister, Mrs.
Robert Fogg, Anaheim and Mmes. Malcom and Jere Foutz, of Avonell and Mrs. P. G. Lucas, Lakewood.

Front Remodeling
On Berry Farm
Nears Completion

Construction and remodeling work on the main building of Knott's Berry Farm on Grand avenue is rapidly nearing completion. The "new look" will enhance the appearance of the gift shop, the portion of the chicken dining room which faces the highway, the berry market, the main offices and the nursery.

The berry farm has added many new structures in recent years but the appearance of the main building has remained almost unchanged up to the period of the present remodeling which began January 28.

Over 300 feet of sidewalk will be enclosed by a roof to protect winter guests from the rain.
The gift shop and chicken dining room will be completely enclosed. This heated anteroom will eliminate the cold draft which enters the dining room through the doors facing the street. Guests will enter both the gift shop and the dining room from the north end of the new enclosure.

The building which now houses the berry market will become a two story structure in the same style as the present foundation.
An expanding main office will fill this upper story. A new sign will also be built over the two story construction.

The Women's Missionary council of Faith Tabernacle visited God's orphanage on Firestone Wednesday. A pot-luck luncheon was shared with the youngsters there.

Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, stating grounds for denial as provided by law. The premises are now licensed for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Still Hunt for Men

Who Hid Jewelry

In Grove Near Here

Los Angeles county sheriff's deputies were still hunting today for men who buried three partially empty jewel cases in an olive grove near La Mirada, just over the county line from Buena Park, last week.

Deputies ended a futile 24-hours of digging for a cache of $200,000 in buried jewels stolen from jewelry salesman Milton Cohen last February 8.

The search began after James
A. Miller of Anaheim dug up the jewel cases containing three platinum and diamond pins. Miller and his friend, Fred Beck, also of Anaheim interrupted a mushroom picking excursion to help two men push an old light blue sedan from a mud hole in the grove. After they had left Miller found what appeared to be a freshly dug mound. He scooped out the jewel cases and turned them over to officers.

"PARK TO BE" FLOAT, entered by Cypress Volunteer Fire department in White Gold day parade on September 17, 1948 depicted pseudo park with small children apparently enjoying its facilities. Park is step nearer today as board makes plans for blueprint.

AUXILIARY TO HAVE POT LUCK, PLASTICS PARTY MARCH 10

Six members in the auxiliary to Cypress Post No. 9847 of the VFW signified their willingness at Monday night's meeting to help with the annual Red Cross drive here. Rev. W. D. Howard was also notified that members would assist in sorting and mending clothing left at the church for victims of a recent disastrous fire which could not be used by the family.

On March 10 the group will enjoy a pot luck dinner at its meeting hall. The public is invited to attend the "plastics party" which will follow, demonstrated by Louise Begley.

ing of the group Saturday will be ready in about 15 days. A complete sketch will be completed soon after that.

Van Dyke stated that immediate plans call for a fence to enclose the area, and for the ground to be levelled. The well which is already there will be adequate for the time being, it is felt, and the board will concentrate on using its funds to construct a hall or gymnasium to be used principally by the youth of the community.

A date for this year's "White Gold day" celebration has not as yet been set. The board will welcome suggestions concerning a suitable date, Van Dyke said.

CANASTA AGAIN VFW HALL—SAT. NIGHT'S PARTY

The social planned for this Saturday night by the local VFW will be a canasta and card party at the organization's hall, 5955 Lincoln avenue. The public is invited to attend.

Twenty-four members and friends were present at last Saturday evening's square dance session. Mrs. Barbara Young called the dances.

YOUTH SALUTE

fast, scrappy three-round matches which practically brought the house down.

The printed program is being reproduced below, and each participant was a star in his own right. Because this newspaper has at times been critical of the actions of boys and girls here, we want to be equally as lavish in our praise toward an undertaking which proved to be so successful.

Realize Nice Profit

A financial report indicates that a profit of $55 was realized following Friday night's performance. The group is indebted to merchants who advertised in its printed program and for the $15 door receipts. Donations of $25 and $15 helped swell the funds, which will be used to buy equipment. It was first thought that the money would be used to purchase another set of weights. However, because of the severe "burns" received by several of the participants, a mat will be among the first items sought.

It is understood that invitations have been received from certain of the schools in this area to repeat the performance.
